A PASSION FOR WHAT'S POSSIBLE

2015-2016 Annual Appeal

Serving adults with disabilities and their families since 1981

Dear Families and Friends,

Cooperative for Human Services, Inc. has a mission to fulfill and you can help achieve this mission ~ for every person with special needs to live a truly happy and fulfilling life as respected citizens of their communities.

Generous financial donations have allowed individuals served by Cooperative for Human Services, Inc. to celebrate a passion for life, achieving personal goals and attaining dreams in comfortable homes in familiar communities. Your financial contributions have allowed the development of ground breaking opportunities for the people we serve and our support staff. This year CHS launched the innovative Evolution of Excellence Campaign ~ a campaign focused on each person served ~ their unique experiences and personal stories as service recipients. This campaign is the next chapter in our organization's continued pursuit of 'A Passion for What's Possible' on behalf of each person and each family.

This campaign involves:

- Responding to the changing support needs of people as they age, so they can continue to live in their homes with their friends and family;
- Increasing each person's connections in the community through social & recreational activities, civic involvement, volunteerism and friendships;
- Recognizing the outstanding services provided by our caring, dedicated workforce and providing staff with exceptional, timely and on-going support and training;
- Providing a variety of housing options that offer safe, comfortable, clean, sanctuaries with modern, customized amenities for each person served;
- Increasing our administrative efficiency, effectiveness and efficacy through practical, state-of-the-art technology and communications systems;
- Expanding our partnerships with other advocacy, parent and provider organizations;
- Reaching out, researching and finding ways to serve more people in an organized, thoughtful, well planned and strategic way.

The monetary resources to develop this campaign along with many other learning opportunities and social activities for the individuals we care for are made possible because of your financial assistance. There is still more to do. We are asking for your help again. You can continue to have a positive effect on the individuals served by Cooperative for Human Services, Inc.

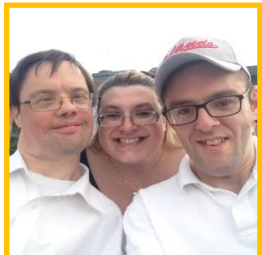

Your continued financial support will help Cooperative for Human Services, Inc. move forward, leveraging our progress providing individualized, person-centered services as we journey into the future. Please make your donation today and please give generously.

Sincerely,

Kevin J. Leahy,
Executive Director
